2022-23 Season Outlook: What more motivation do you need than losing in the championship game by 1? With the losses of Cori Dilsavor, Carmen Williams, Kerri Daniel, Grace Thein, and several others, and with Jacqueline Roberts still out with injury, we will need to find a new identity. We brought in some good size and added depth at the guard position and are eager for game action. We just have to take it one practice/game at a time and put the pieces together while keeping the main goals in mind.

Head Coach Quote: “This year’s team has a lot of potential. As we continue to build our chemistry in the early months of the season, especially with ten new faces, we will have to hang our hats on defense and toughness. With the loss of several starters and a lot of size, we had some tough shoes to fill but the returners have shown great leadership so far and the new girls have shown commitment, versatility, and an eagerness to compete. Our 1 point loss in the title game last season is still very fresh in all of our minds, and while we know we are not there yet, we believe we will be a contender again.”
