2024-25 Season Outlook: Almost all players from last year are returning including all of the starters. We are extremely well rounded with offensive threats Cinquina and Montalbano, and Coulter at the post grabbing rebounds and consistently finishing at the basket. Cronin and Varlamos are defensive anchors who balance the starting lineup. Returning players like Kawa and Kotsogiannis are strong players who carry our second line. Our team runs extremely deep and we have exciting new players who are not afraid to run the court.

Head Coach Quote: We were new to Regionals and Nationals last year and were one of the only teams without a head coach or team jerseys. We know that winning is not dependent on having the best equipment, but instead depends on teamwork and determination. We know what it takes to win and are ready to work for it this year.
