Biggest Rival: George Washington and Georgetown

2026-27 Season Outlook: A lot of new players excited to integrate with the team and push the team towards more wins, especially with our post players.

Head Coach Quote: We are a very young team, having only been formed two years ago. In those two years we have created a team from scratch, an entire playbook, and a team identity. Coming into our third season we are excited to use what we have learned the past two years to really excel this year and get some more wins.

contributions coming from across the roster, Bucknell is poised for a competitive season built on depth, teamwork, and a true team-first mentality

Head Coach Quote: "We're really excited for this season. We learned a lot last year about what it takes to compete at a high level, and I think the team is coming in with a lot more confidence and experience. This group of girls have built that chemistry and trust with each other, enjoying every moment together on and off the court. We're looking forward to seeing how far we can take it this year".
